

Tete à Tete	clusters of small yellow trumpet shaped flowers	23 cm	April
--------------------	--	-------	-------

Mixed ColoursDivision 7: Jonquilla Narcissi

		Height	Flowering Outdoors
Bell Song	pale buff yellow with bright pink cup, 2-3 flowers per stem	35 cm	late April
Pipit	2-3 pale sulphur yellow flowers per stem	25 cm	mid April
Jonquilla Mixed	mixed colours

Division 8: Tazetta or Poetaz Narcissi

		Height	Flowering Outdoors	12/14cm
Cragford	early variety, 4-6 flowers on a strong stem. White perianth, orange scarlet cup.	30 cm	late March

Division 11: Orchid Flowering Narcissi

		Height	Flowering Outdoors	12/14cm
Apricot Whirl	white,, salmon cup	40cm	mid March
Cassata	white, golden yellow centre	40 cm	mid March
Orangery	white blooms with a bright orange 'split' trumpet	35 cm	mid March

Miniature and Species Daffodils

		Height	Flowering Outdoors
Minnow	miniature Tazetta hybrid, 2-3 soft yellow flowers on each stem	18 cm	late March
Mixed Colours	Mixed

Daffodils & Narcissi by Weight

Trumpet Daffodils		Height
Dutch Master	large golden yellow	45 cm
Golden Harvest	deep golden yellow	45 cm
St Keverne	deep golden yellow	50 cm
Unsurpassable	large golden yellow	35 cm

Large Cupped Narcissi

California	yellow	35 cm
Carbineer	rich yellow perianth, bright orange cup	45 cm
Carlton	soft clear yellow, fine frilled crown	40 cm
Ellen	white perianth, deep orange edged cup	35 cm
Ice Follies	white with cream cup	45 cm
Scarlet O'Hara	lemon yellow perianth, bright orange cup	40 cm

Small Cupped Narcissi

Barrett Browning	creamy white perianth, scarlet orange cup	40 cm
-------------------------	--	-------

Eranthis (Winter Aconites) - In the Green.

We can now supply the Aconites during January and February complete with foliage. This is, without doubt, the best way to achieve a natural and permanent display. All bulbs are supplied from privately owned, natural areas, and they are removed in a controlled manner to ensure continued availability.

Hyemalis	lemon yellow. Flowering late January/March	6 cm
-----------------	---	------

Fritillaria Imperialis

These tall conspicuous plants, known as <Crown Imperials> make a spectacular show when planted in groups in beds, borders

		Height
Aurora	orange red	65 cm
Lutea Maxima	yellow	65 cm

Fritillaria

Fascinating bell-like flowers borne in the spring, ideal for beds and borders.

		Height
Meleagris	(Chequered Lily/Snakeshead Fritillary) white and mauve mixture.	20 cm
Michailovskyi	purple-brown, edged yellow. Flowering March	20 cm
Persica	(Persian Lily) dark purple. Flowering April/May	90 cm
Persica Ivory Bells	creamy-green flowers. Flowering April/May	90 cm

Galanthus (Snowdrops) - Dry Bulbs

Supplied as dry bulbs from September - end November. Flowering as early as January, Snowdrops present a welcome sight in

	Height
Galanthus Nivalis Double	15 cm
Galanthus Nivalis Single	15 cm

Hyacinthoides Non Scripta - Dry Bulbs

Supplied as dry bulbs from September - end November.

		Height
(English Bluebells)	rich violet blue, flowering May	22 cm

Snowdrops, Bluebells and Aconites can also be planted in the Spring when they are in leaf. They establish quickly and as a result will naturalise far sooner when planted in this format. Bulbs are lifted fresh in the spring and despatched immediately to ensure that they are delivered in perfect condition.

Galanthus (Snowdrops) 'In the Green'

We can now supply the Snowdrops during January and February complete with foliage. This is, without doubt, the best way to

Galanthus Nivalis Single

Hyacinthoides Non Scripta (English Bluebells) 'In the Green'

We can now supply the Bluebells during January and February with complete with foliage. This is, without doubt, the best way to

Hyacinthoides Non Scripta rich violet blue, flowering May

Leucojum

Commonly called the Summer Snowflake, L. Aestivum are ideal for borders, naturalising, for cut flowers. Flowering April/May.

Aestivum	white, large flowering	Height 35 cm
-----------------	-------------------------------	------------------------

Muscari (Grape Hyacinths)

All Muscari are of dwarf habit and lend themselves to naturalising, to the rockery, border clumps, terrace containers and window boxes. Flowering in April. They are also useful for cultivation in pots and bowls.

		Height	6/7 cm	7/8 cm
Armeniacum	bright blue	15 cm
Latifolium	light blue tip, dark blue base	25 cm
Mount Hood	dark blue, topped white	15 cm
Valerie Finnis	pale lavender blue	15 cm
Venus	white	15 cm

Ornithogalum

These unusual members of the Lily family flower March-April. They are ideal for naturalising in woodlands, shrubberies, grassy banks or borders.

		Height
Umbellatum	white (Star of Bethlehem family)	15 cm

Oxalis

Stunning clover-like foliage make these ideal for potting and in borders. Varieties offered are non-invasive

		Height
Adenophylla	lilac pink flowers above stunning grey-green foliage	15 cm

Puschkinia

Drifts of Puschkinia in partially shaded positions create a most pleasing effect in the garden in March and April. They also like sunny spots in the rockery and do well in containers.

		Height
Libanotica	porcelain blue	12 cm

Ranunculus

An excellent flower for beds, borders and rockeries. It is also ideal for cut flower use in May-August.

Paeony Flowering Mixed		Height 20 cm
-------------------------------	--	------------------------

Scilla

These woodland plants do well in open woods, along shady paths, or in the front of lightly shaded borders.

		Height
Peruviana	blue, flowering May	10-25 cm
Siberica	bright blue, flowering March/April	10-15 cm

Sparaxis

Often called <Harlequin> flowers. They are ideal for warm sunny beds and borders.

		Height
Superb Mixed	flowering June/July	18 cm

Spring Range

Acidantha

Ideal for the summer border or in pots. Sweetly scented flowers are borne above sword-shaped leaves

		Height	Flowering Outdoors	Size
Murielae	white, purple red base	75 cm	July-August	8/10 cm

Allium

The ornamental Allium belongs to the same family of edible plants such as garlic, onions and leeks. The flowers of the taller species are very striking when planted in groups, whilst the dwarf types are ideal for rockeries.

		Height	Flowering Outdoors	Size
Cernuum	drooping amethyst flower heads	30 cm	July-August	I
Cowanii	lacy, white flowers. Good for cutting	45 cm	May	4/5 cm
Hair	green tendrils appear on the flower head	60 cm	June-July	4/5 cm
Moly	yellow	25 cm	June	5/+
Neapolitanum	white	40 cm	April-May	4/+
Ramosum	silvery white flower head	40 cm	June	I
Roseum	delicate pink	35 cm	May-June	5/+
Sphaerocephalon	deep purple-red	90 cm	July-August	5/6 cm
Tuberosum	white	55 cm	July-Nov	I
Unifolium	pink	25 cm	May-Jul	4/5 cm

Anemones

The St Brigid and De Caen mixed are ideal varieties for cut flowers and for planting in borders.

Single De Caen	mixed shades
Double St Brigid	mixed shades